

Privacy statement

The privacy statement defines how the Long Term Infrastructure Investors Association (“LTIIA”), acting as a data controller, may process information relating to identified or identifiable natural persons collected from time to time (directly or indirectly, on a compulsory or voluntary manner, manually or otherwise) from the data subjects themselves.

Why does LTIIA process personal data?

LTIIA may process personal data for communications, public relations and event organization purposes.

The purposes above are based on at least one of the following legal bases:

- the processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by LTIIA;
- the data subject has given consent to the processing for one or more specific purposes.

Depending on, and when necessary for, the purposes above, LTIIA may process the following categories of personal data:

- Identification data (e.g. name, surname, alias...);
- Professional data (e.g. position, company...).

How long does LTIIA keep the personal data?

The personal data will be kept in a form which permits identification of the data subjects for no longer than is necessary for each purpose for which they have been collected.

Who is the controller of your personal data?

The LTIIA is the controller of the personal data you submit to us and responsible for your personal data under applicable data protection law.

Where do we store your data?

The data that we collect from you is stored within the European Economic Area and/or the United States.

Who accesses your data?

Your data may be shared within the LTIIA. We never pass on, sell or swap your data for marketing purposes to third parties outside the LTIIA.

What are your rights?

To the extent permitted by the laws, you may have the right, to:

- request access to and rectification or the erasure of your personal data or restriction of processing;
- object the processing of your personal data; as well as
- data portability.

Should the processing be exclusively based on your consent, you shall have the right to withdraw it at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of the processing based on your consent before such withdrawal.

To exercise the rights listed above, you are invited to send an email demonstrating your identity and specifying the right you want to exercise to info@ltiia.org.

Right to access:

You have the right to request information about the personal data we hold on you at any time. You can contact LTIIA at info@ltiia.org that will provide you with your personal data via e-mail.

Right to rectification:

You have the right to request rectification of your personal data if they are incorrect, including the right to have incomplete personal data completed.

Right to erasure:

You have the right to erase any personal data processed by LTIIA at any time.

Your right to object to processing based on legitimate interest:

You have the right to object to processing of your personal data that is based on LTIIA legitimate interest. LTIIA will not continue to process the personal data unless we can demonstrate a legitimate ground for the process which overrides your interest and rights or due to legal claims.

Unless indicated otherwise, you can opt out from direct marketing by replying with "Unsubscribe" in the e-mail body to any of our mass mailings.

Updates to our Privacy Notice:

We may need to update our Privacy Notice. The latest version of the Privacy Notice is always available on our website. We will communicate any material changes to the Privacy Notice, for example the purpose of why we use your personal data.
